New Identity Cards Readied for Students

Military type Student Identification cards make their debut on campus during Freshman Week, replacing present Student Activities Books. Suggested three years ago by former director of Student Activities Dr. Floyd Brewer, ID cards will become a reality through the combined efforts of Dr. Brewer and Student Council President Nick Panuzio.

ID cards will serve dual roles: a pass to all University events and a positive means of identification at Marina Dining Hall.

In the past, many students felt the need for a means of identification in dealing with local merchants, check cashing and charge accounts. The cards will aid students in obtaining more effective transactions and will reduce paper work in preparing voting lists for campus elections.

"On a trial basis for one academic year, ID cards will become permanent if proven satisfactory," Prof. William T. DeSiero, Student Council advisor commented.

Evening students will not be issued cards but will receive receipts for identification. There will be a color difference in cards for dormitory residents and off-campus students.

Other information which the cards will provide: Student number, dormitory meal number, date of birth, local address and telephone number and the student's major and space for a signature.

Elected Officers Assuming Duties

Class officers for the fall semester will be assuming their official duties this week. The 1956-57 winners of last May elections are:

Senior Class — Robert D'Andrea, president; Nick Panuzio, vice president; Bette Weber, secretary; David Barr, treasurer. Jack Reichel and Bert Siegel won the posts of first and second representatives respectively.

Junior Class — Ed Chin, president; Anne Foothorap, vice-president; Roberta 'Sugar' Aronson, secretary; and Judy Carr, treasurer. Mona Schwartz was elected to the post of first representative; Henry Fraunhofer and Vincent Caprio were elected to the posts of first and second alternates.

Marion Lunn Fills Alumni Hall Post

Marion Lunn, director of Social Activities, has been appointed to fill the vacant post of director of Alumni Hall with the summer resignation of Dr. Floyd Brewer, who left to take on the post of director of Student Union at the University of Cincinnati.

George Stanley, instructor in mathematics, will serve as director of student activities, while Frank Cavendar, a graduate assistant and former president of Kappa Beta Rho, will replace Pete Baldino as assistant to the Alumni heads.

How Do You Measure Up?

Checklist Should Help You Find Your College Potential

The typical freshman, after his first day of classes, goes quietly to his room and asks the mirror that frightening question: Will I succeed? The mirror won't help much, but there are standards for judging his future that are a little more concrete.

Dr. Donald W. Kern, director of admissions, as well as a certified psychologist, believes that there are three guides in determining the success of the student in college. He states that when the University accepts an applicant, it is especially interested in the student's academic ability, his extra-curricular activities and his personality.

"We find that the students who generally succeed are those who are in the upper half of their graduating class in high school and who do well on psychological tests," Kern said.

"Persons, who are active in active in extra-curricular activities (omit merely joiners) and possessors of a pleasing personality, are able to gain from participation in activities at the University as well as adjust themselves in the classroom," he said.

The students who generally do not succeed in college are characterized by any or all of the following characteristics, Kern stated: lack of goals, low level of academic ability, emotional instability, immaturity, lack of imagination, weakness in reading, writing and arithmetic, poor study habits, lack of self confidence, procrastination, lack of integrity and place too much emphasis on extra curricular activities to the point where they fall behind in their academic studies.

UB Welcomes Freshmen

Approximately 700 neophytes will be on campus for tonight's opening Freshman Week activities designed to introduce new students to the University. A full five days and nights of events has been planned with the annual Freshman Ball on Saturday night winding up the festivities.

The 1956 Freshman Week committee is composed of 76 upperclassmen and three faculty members, sponsored by Student Council, Social Activities and the University.

The Knights of Thunder will present a special musical comedy directed by Al Zavadsky with guest players. Featured will be UB's version of "Pearl Bailey". Other Entertainment includes: Gerry Bennett, dancing; Bill Bevacque, Caryl Blank and June Bartram, singing and Bob Ruge's interesting pantomimes. Candidates for Freshman Queen will also be presented to the Class of 1960.

The Knights will perform two complete shows. An all-night square dance is also planned and a host of other "get-acquainted" gatherings to fulfill the committee's promise of a fun-packed week.

Registration for Freshmen will take place September 13-14 between 8 a. m. and 12 noon and from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m. in the gymnasium at the corner of Linden and Hazel streets.

Committee members for Freshman Week include:

Co-chairmen, Nicholas A. Panuzio and Bert Siegel; faculty and staff members, Mrs. Marion Lunn and Prof. William T. DeSiero and Dr. Francis Dolan, Advisor to the Freshman Class.

Student committee members include: Marilyn Alcon, Sugar Aronson, Dave Barr, Janet Bailey, Stephanie Berger, Eva Burnstein, Gail Breff, Judy Carr, Martin Carigan, Grace Chanovitt, Tony Colbert, Carolyn Dalla Valle, Leah David, Marshall Dickman, Marge

Fenick, Bob Finegold, Myrna Freed.

Also, Sue Friedling, Anne Friedman, Disk Goldblatt, Ann Granlaji, Carol Gross, Glenna Hurowitz, Blossom Kessel, Myrna Klosk, Judy Kornbluh, Don Lurie, Dave Marks, Pat Mertens, Nick Panuzio, Sue Portnoy, Murray Pruess, Lenny Rich, Hal Roberts, Teddi Rosenberg, Maxine Rosenholtz, Rhoda Schaeffer.

Also, Lois Schwartz, Mona Schwartz, Jack Shanley, Jane Shapiro, Jeri Sheslow, Joe Siciliano, Bert Siegel, Rachel Smith, Al Stein, Marion Sussman, Betty Sweet, Taffy Tafler, Audrey Thilo, Ed Wolf, Anne Foothorap, George Mosson, Robert Lenn, Bill Korner, Pat Creel, Judy Youman, Joe Kraynick.

And, Roger Powers, Eleanor Stoller, Paula Menton, Doris Schwartz, Tory Brainard, Murry Klein, Martin Halpert, Robert D'Andrea, Bill Bartlett, Phil Bush and Larry Novak.

State Approves Nursing Program

University graduates in nursing will now be qualified to direct health programs in public schools, teach in the area of health and act as consultants to teachers in classrooms where these teachers are responsible for health instruction, Martha P. Jayne, dean of the College of Nursing, announced, following recent state approval for the school nurse-teacher certification program.

Designed for registered nurses, the program will be offered on both a full-time and part-time basis. It will include courses in English, history, political science, speech, sociology and required courses in nursing. Registered nurses may receive up to 45 semester hours of advanced standing in qualifying for degree status.

Eighteen New Faces Added To Faculty for Fall Semester

University officials have announced the addition of 18 new members to the faculty.

New faces at the College of Business Administration will be:

Edward R. Astarita, Ching Chi Chang, Ernest Sapelli and Carolyn R. Shilling. Astarita has worked in industry for the past several years and has served with the U. S. Army Medical Department from 1943 through 1945. He joins the staff as an instructor in business administration.

Ching Chi Chang has taught high school in China and served as a junior accountant at Bellevue Medical Center, New York University. He will enter the University as an instructor in accounting.

Ernest Sapelli, who will assume the post of assistant professor of industrial relations, has had considerable experience in industry and is a navy veteran.

Carolyn R. Shilling has done research work for the Office of Intelligence Research, Department of State, as an economic analyst. She was a visiting lecturer at the University of North Carolina in the spring of 1954 and will serve as an instructor in economics.

Appointees to the Junior College of Connecticut are:

John C. Benz, who will instruct in art and Rosemary Hope, assistant instructor in home administration.

Joining the staff of the College of Arts and Science are:

Richard Doenges, formerly an instructor in English at Brown University, will perform the same duties here; Stuart A. Mayper, who will serve as an assistant professor of chemistry, has taught at various colleges and has done chemical research for the Phelps Dodge Corp. and the Interchemical Corp.; Chung-Wen Shi received his doctorate in English and philosophy from Duke University and has taught both in the United States and China; he will be an instructor in English.

Louise C. Turner, who has taught at the University on a part time basis, now joins the staff as a full time assistant professor of mathematics. Also new in the College of Arts and Science is Justus Van Der Kroef, as an assistant professor of sociology and political science.

Additions to the College of Education faculty are:

Freshmen:

REPORT to your FRESHMAN WEEK guide as instructed. YOUR guide's name is listed in "FRESHMAN DAZE."

Panuzio Attends NSA Conference

Student Council President Nick Panuzio recently attended the National Student Association's annual convention at the University of Chicago.

Representing the University, Panuzio took part in a special meeting of student body presidents. Student representatives from throughout the nation and several foreign countries attended the two-week NSA gathering.

Problems of students on the college campus as well as the formulation of student opinion on national and international problems were considered by the delegates.

Big Fix On! Bureau Pairs Guys, Dolls

The Freshman Dance will be held Saturday, and if all freshmen are not there, it won't be the fault of Marge Fenick, chairman of the new Date Bureau.

The Date Bureau is a new idea and its function is to arrange it so that every freshman has a dance date. Fenick and her committee—Murray Klein, Flo Meyer, Rita Virelli and Hal Roberts—will hand out applications to all freshmen at the Orientation sessions tomorrow. On these applications the freshman will be asked to give a personal description for the purpose of getting matched with the right partner.

After all applications are in, the Committee will get in touch with the opposite sex and he or she will be notified as to whom and where the date resides. The Bureau takes no responsibility after that.

A HEARTY WELCOME!

Back in the day when burlesque was as respectable as tea-time with an archbishop, the top banana would rush wildly on stage and after looking around in a confused manner would shout—this muz be da plaze. From this dizzy opening the show was off and running and a well-planned program followed.

Freshman Week in many ways is much like that opening moment for the lead comic—confusion followed by fun and fanfare. By now the freshman has learned that this is the place and we hope that during the next week he will find that it is a very nice one.

Activities during Freshman Week have been planned with the purpose of introducing new students to the campus and to each other. We, of the Scribe, want to wish newcomers the best of luck during the year and hope the spirit of Freshman Week carries over till next summer.

Family and friends and about everyone that is three days older than you are has been telling you to pitch in and do a good job. We agree with them, college is a serious business—and we have the birth certificate to justify the advice—but college is also fun and we hope you will have a lot of that too.

Remember this is the place—your place.

Administration Greets Freshmen

In a joint statement welcoming all new students, President James H. Halsey and Vice President Henry W. Littlefield felt that with the increased college enrollments in the last few years the new student should feel himself privileged to be filling a place that other people wanted.

The University heads added that this privileged status also demanded that the student assume the responsibilities that go with it. Maintaining that the University was in its strongest position in history, they stressed everyone on campus was eager to help the new students in any way possible.

They said that they were impressed with the "thorough and interesting plans" made by the Freshman Week Committee for the activities during Freshman Week and urged all new students to attend each event and participate in every activity.

Two Honor Students Win McLevy Awards

Freshmen Diana G. Chala of 380 Myrtle Avenue and John Henry Kent of 3105 Old Town Road, are the recipients of the first McLevy scholarships at the University for the new term.

The Jasper McLevy scholarship fund was launched last February by a Bridgeport citizen's committee in honor of the city's long-time mayor. Recently the committee reported that the fund has passed the $31,000 mark.

Miss Chala, 17, graduated from Bassick High School magna cum laude, and will major in executive secretarial studies in the Weylister Secretarial School.

Kent graduated from Central High School with second honors. He will major in electrical engineering in the Division of Engineering.

The scholarship is renewable during each school year that the student is in attendance and continues to maintain a good academic record.

Rouceks Crash 'Curtain' In Travel-Lecture Tour

Dr. Joseph S. Roucek, chairman of the departments of sociology and political science at the University, returned recently with his wife, from a three-month lecture tour of the European continent which included visits to Spain, France, Italy, Yugoslavia, Austria, Germany and Holland.

In Spain the Rouceks were entertained by U. S. Ambassador John Davis Lodge, a former Connecticut governor. He lectured at the High Institute of Politics in Madrid, the official school for Spanish diplomats. At the Institute, Dr. Roucek said, he had first hand experience with student-inspired anti-communist demonstrations.

After spending six weeks in Yugoslavia, Dr. Roucek characterized the nation as "a country of extreme contrasts which is trying to jump from the roots of ancient traditions, customs and costumes to the most advanced industrial level of today, though the efforts are not always successful."

His impressions of life in Yugoslavia mirrored ours: Crowds milling in and out of theatres, motion picture houses, shops and coffee shops.

Vienna, even after bombardment, occupation by three foreign armies and the miseries of war, has all the characteristics of a prosperous metropolis", Dr. Roucek said, "but so many Americans and foreigners clutter up the streets that the traffic problem reminded us of Bridgeport."

One of the highlights of the trip for the Rouceks proved to be seeing "Radio Free Europe" operate on the outskirts of Munich.

Dr. Roucek has hundreds of photographs which he has developed and printed. These together with his factual material will be placed in a volume for use by his sociology students.

Major Offered In Housewifery

In past years the University has been turning out engineers, businessmen, nurses, and many other type of professional people, but this semester will mark a new era when young college ladies will be allowed to major in the intricacies of being a housewife.

With the introduction of a course in home administration, co-eds will be able to take a two year program leading to a degree of Associate in Arts. Basic courses in the program will include study and practical experience in areas of home management, consumer economics, child growth and development, health and home nursing, food and nutrition, clothing, interior decoration and marriage and family relationships.

1956 Class Sets Contribution Record

The University Alumni Office reported yesterday that 130 contributions already have been received from members of the 1956 Class since June graduation.

President James H. Halsey, in noting the figure, stated that "this number of contributions from a single class breaks all previously established fund participation records in this category, and we are indeed proud of their outstanding accomplishment."

Most of the gifts received were for a special multiplex display board. Thus far, 508 gifts have been received through the fund.

"Frankly, I'm worried! He says they all look just like ink blots to him."

Purple Knights Strain for Norwich Opener

With about two weeks of practice gone, Head Coach Walter "Kay" Kondratovich feels that this year's football squad may prove to be the best he has had in several years.

A tough, nine game schedule faces the much improved UB squad this year with the opener to take place at Hedges stadium Saturday night, Sept. 22, against a rugged Norwich squad.

Coach Kondratovich said he was pleased at opening day work-out with the fine physical condition of most of his gridders and he claims three practice sessions a day has just about rounded out the squad into a razor sharp combine.

By adding the "split-T" to the varied offense the Purple Knights already possess, the number one problem, as Kondratovich sees it, is the development of a top-notch passing quarterback, even though several outstanding candidates are battling for the job.

With 15 backs from which to choose, Kondratovich may have to convert some of the quarterback candidates to end positions where depth is lacking. New Head Line Coach Pete Alessevich otherwise has ample line material to mold into a hard charging as well as a strong defensive unit.

Lettermen returning include: end, John Carr, Hamden; tackles, Ernie Levitt, Forest Hills, N. Y. and John Kenny, Salem Mass.; guards, Gary Engler and Gene Pulaski, Bridgeport; and James O'Hara, Danbury; centers, William Barstow, Pittsfield, Mass. and Ed Shumofsky, Mount Vernon, N. Y.; backs, Bob Marks and Mike Donahue, Bridgeport; Jerry McDougall, Stratford; Charles Pike, Stamford; and Ed "Rebel" Hall, St. Augustine, Florida.

Of the five home games on the schedule, four will be night contests, beginning at 7:45 p. m. with the finale, a home contest against New Haven State Teachers at 2 p. m. at Hedges stadium where all home games will be played.

Soccer Call Brings Out 18 Prospects

Eighteen candidates came out for the University soccer team yesterday, Head Coach John McKeon reported.

"Prospects," said McKeon, "look about the same as three years ago. Give my returning lettermen and promising sophomores a chance to know each other and they may prove to be a great club."

A nine game schedule, including six New England Inter-collegiate Soccer League contests, is on tap for the Purple and White booters. The first game will take place against Hofstra college at Hempstead, Long Island.

Ten first string seniors from last year's squad, which posted a 9-1 record for the second consecutive year, concluded their studies last June.

McKeon said that the players he will miss most are NCAA All-American Jim Davins of New Haven (goalie); Nick D'Aluisio, Ridgefield Park, N. J. (Fullback) All-New England; and Mike Belmont, Saybrook, Conn. (Forward).

The probable starting lineup will be: Felix Olivia, Gibby Emack, Mark Scheinbart, Frank Wlassak, Sal DeCristoforo, Jack Martin, Joe Restuccia, Bob Sveda, Danny Katz and Pete Degregorio.

The schedule includes: Sept. 29—Hofstra, Hempstead, L. I.; Oct. 6—Fordham, New York City; Oct. 20—Springfield College, Home; Oct. 25—Lowell Textile Institute, Lowell, Mass.; Oct. 26—University of Mass., Amherst—Oct. 31—Clark University, Home; Nov. 3—Albany State Teachers, Home; Nov. 9—Boson University, Home; Nov. 17—Coast Guard, New London.

Full Time Athletic Trainer Added to UB Sports Staff

A full-time head athletic trainer has been named by Dr. Herbert E. Glines, director of athletics at the University.

He is Francis W. Poisson, Jr. of Fitchburg, Mass., ex-army veteran and 1953 graduate of Arnold college. During his army hitch, Poisson served as head athletic trainer at Brooke Army Medical Center at Fort Sam Houston, Tex., for 17 months. In 1954 he assisted in caring for the training needs of the Los Angeles Rams professional football team during an exhibition game with the Philadelphia Eagles at San Antonio.

While at Arnold, where he was a member of the varsity gymnastic squad and also served as co-captain of that team in his senior year, he was student athletic trainer for three years and worked in a similar capacity on a part time basis at Yale University.

His job will be the care and prevention of injuries in all University sports. He also expects to do graduate study in the College of Education.

KNOW YOUR COACHES

Walter "Kay" Kondratovich, Head Football Coach, is beginning his eighth season as head coach of the University's football team.

As a collegiate player he was an outstanding back for Coach Lou Little at Columbia University, following one year at Notre Dame.

Following his graduation from Columbia in 1948, he coached the "Lion" Backfield under Little. Kondratovich then came to UB as head coach in 1949. In addition to his duties as head coach, he is also the varsity track and swimming coach as well as a teacher in the classroom.

Born in Bridgeport, "Kay" is a graduate of Harding High School where he set many records.

Peter "Pete" Alessevich, Head Line Coach, is entering his first season as head line coach at the University. A former University of Mississippi gridiron great, he is noted for his ability to turn out outstanding football players.

During World War II, while in the Army, "Pete" served as athletic director as well as a company first sergeant at Battery General Hospital in Rome, Georgia. He also coached the Rome High School football for two years.

Alessevich has taken over the line coaching duties from Alphonse J. Sherman, who has decided to devote his time to teaching and serving as golf coach here at the University.

Louis "Iron Horse" Saccone, Head Freshman Coach, is beginning his second year as head coach of the freshman football squad. Last year, under Lou's tutelage, the University had its first official freshman football team. The fine talent that he helped develop is expected to add a great deal of strength to this year's varsity squad.

A five-letterman during his collegiate athletic career at UB, Lou was outstanding in football, basketball, baseball, track and golf.

In addition to coaching freshman football, Lou also directs the freshman baseball and basketball squads.

Meet the Booters

The 1956 Soccer team, hindered greatly by the loss of All-American goalie Jim Davins, is expected to match or better last season's 9 won - 1 lost record.

Key players to be counted upon by Head Soccer Coach, John McKeon, will be: Felix Olivia, senior, who hails from Venezuela, and made All-New England last year. He is a great scoring threat and will man one of the inside positions.

Gibby Mack, another senior and co-captain, is a hard fighter. His peed and aggressiveness will add greatly to this season's squad.

Mark Scheinbart, co-captain from New York, will fill the half-back slot as a great competitor.

Frank Wlassak, sophomore, is the most promising player on the squad. McKeon's biggest problem will be where to play him.

George Dieter, another sophomore, will be groomed to take over the goalie job vacated by Davins. Only four goals were scored against Dieter in the freshman schedule. With more experience he should become one of the very best. He is a veteran and hails from Ridgefield, New Jersey.

ALL ABOUT THE LINE

The 1956 football call has brought out an array of talent to give Head Football Coach Walter "Kay" Kondratovich reasons to feel that there's a good year in store for the Purple Knights.

The varsity backfield boasts as one of its mainstays, Charley Pike, one of the squad's leading ground gainers last year despite injuries at the start of the season. Pike hails from Stamford, Conn. and is an outstanding runner and alert pass receiver.

Bobby Marks, a junior and a native Bridgeporter, was the squad's leading ball carrier last season. A fast, hard runner, he is a tough man to bring down.

Another speedy back is Ed "Rebel" Hall from St. Augustine, Fla., one of the lightest men in the backfield, yet one of Kondratovich's outstanding defensive men.

Gerry McDougall, a rugged and aggressive player from Stratford, Conn., will be called upon to alternate as a fullback and a quarterback. He ably filled last year's quarterback slot when injuries benched regulars in that position.

The return from service of Mickey Donahue, 6-1, 205 pound quarterback, may solve one of the main problems facing this year's squad—filling the quarterback spot.

Another returning veteran, 205 pound halfback, Don Scott, is expected to boost the team's scoring potential.

Rounding out the backfield prospects is Charlie Jessup from Port Chester, who will be playing his first season of varsity ball.

The returning linemen will include one of the most improved players on last year's team, Bill Barstow. He displayed his versatility by playing outstanding games at the center and tackle positions.

John Carr, a reserve halfback last season, has been switched to an end position this season to bolster the forward wall. John is fast and aggressive and is expected to see a great deal of action this year.

Gary Engler, very light as collegiate guards go, showed aggressiveness and speed that earned him a great deal of action last year.

Jim O'Hara, a late starter last season at the guard position, will be called upon for heavy duty this year.

Center Ed Shumofsky, who shouldered the work of co-captain

Dave Deep, when Deep was injured last year, turned in an excellent job. He hails from Mount Vernon, N. Y.

Big and aggressive, Ernie Levitt, Bronx, N. Y., who tops the scales at 250 pounds, could be one of the mainstays of the line.

Gene Pulaski, somewhat erratic last season, has the potential to become one of the finest guards on the squad. He is a native of Stratford.

Don't forget returning veteran John Kenney. John has played both tackle and center and a great deal is expected of him in the center position.

The new prospects include: Dick Whitecomb, 6-0 end, who was named to the All-State team in Vermont while in high school; Duane Shepard, 225 pound end from West Haven, who had an exceptional year with the freshman squad; James Cassel from Patchogue, L. I. and Gus Gazdick will be fighting for the tackle slots.

Rugged Dave Quagliozzi, a 175 pound guard from Brockton, Mass., may earn himself a starting position; Joe Communale, reliable and rugged guard from Iselin, N. J., who never played high school football, is developing into an outstanding player.

Tracey Smith of Bridgeport, an all-around athlete, may be groomed for the quarterback position. He also has outstanding defensive ability and is a good ball carrier; Clarence McLeod, 205 pound fullback, excels as a line-backer; and halfback Ed Wakim, from Jewett City, Conn., showed good potential in that position.

Glines Names Soccer Coach

Dr. Herbert E. Glines announced recently the appointment of Irish-born James Horan as freshman soccer coach. Horan has been a member of several local soccer clubs as well as leading soccer clubs of Canada and Ireland.

In Canada he played two seasons for the Canadian-Vickers club in the Montreal District League. In 1950 his team won the league championship as well as the Province of Quebec Challenge cup.
